yours.

As part of the funding requirements, Kantar Public (an independent research can view Kantar Public's Privacy policy here. We have provided a specific tickbox on the

4. What kind of information do we hold about you, and why?

which we can work out who a person is.

show that we are meeting funder requirements in providing support to peer mentors, volunteers and participants.

- Name
- Gender

- Gender
- Age

There are "special categories" of more sensitive personal data which require a higher level of protection. We will process about you:

- Ethnicity
- History of offending

- Ethnicity
- Health/Disability

- The q will ask a range of questions, some of which include special category data :
  - o Self-

staff have signed that they agree to more rules to make sure [illegible] share individual answers with anybody. instead all information will be grouped together.

5. What does the law say about us being allowed to use this information?

We will only collect and use your [illegible] We are allowed to do this when we meet certain conditions.

1. Where you or your parents have given consent for us to do so (and we've told you and your parents what we're going to do with the information).
2. Where we need to do so as it is in our interests or your interests, and your interests and rights have not been negatively impacted by our actions.

Our interests are:

- Registering an individual on the programme
- Assessing the different people involved in the programme

[illegible]

In order to process [illegible] another condition. The conditions are:

1. Where you or your parents have given consent for us to do so (and we've told

We have provided a consent form for your parent/guardian [illegible] processed, If you do not provide your consent, you will still be able to take part in the programme.

We will only use your [illegible] is similar with the original reason.

6. What is 'automated decision-[illegible] EFL Trust use it?

[illegible]-making means that an electronic system uses your [illegible] We will not do this with your information.

7. Is my personal information shared with other organisations?

EFL Trust will only share information with other organisations for their own use where the information does not identify anybody. Once we have analysed information we will only share combined information. For example, we might say '[illegible]% of participants improved their attitude to physical activity'.

There are some organisations that we may to ca[redacted] organisations so that we are clear about what they can and can't do with the information so that we can keep it safe.
[redacted]

In exceptional situations, we might have to share information with an organisation to obey the law (for example, a court).

8. [redacted] kept safe?

We have put in place methods to protect your information and will review this regularly. We [redacted] from being accidentally lost, and to stop people using your information if they have no need to do so.

Other organisations will only be given access to your information where they have agreed to treat the information confidentially and to keep it safe.

[redacted]
as the law [redacted]

9. How long will you keep my information for?

We will only

- Restriction